

JANUARY PAST CHAIR MESSAGE

Happy New Year!!! I hope you all had a wonderful holiday season. And, just like we do in our personal lives, it's time to take stock in last year and look into the crystal ball for the upcoming year.

I hope that most of you enjoyed what the section had to offer last year. We're sorry we had to cancel the November meeting at the last minute – Colorado's weather can wreak havoc on plans this time of year. Our slated presenter for the November meeting, Dr. Terra Stern of SSD Global Solutions, will now present at our January 26 meeting. Her talk will be on "Lean and Agile Project Management". You don't want to miss this one.

Back to last year...we stayed with the alternating tour/talk program – I'd like to think that this was a success. The Program Committee would like to hear from you about suggested tours and talks going forward. We are working on finding more talks and tours that revolve around quality in the healthcare system. Suggestions are always welcome.

This year is also a transition year for the section chair position. I am moving on to the Education and Nominations positions in the section.

I enjoyed my time as the section chair. Steve Reischel, Sr. Quality Engineer at Medtronic, will be taking over the reins for 2017 and 2018. Please make a point to introduce yourself to him at upcoming meetings. I hope Steve will tell us a bit about himself in an upcoming newsletter (hint, hint).

Keep having fun and, again, Happy New Year!

Yours in quality, Dan Clark

ASQ National News

Exactly how is risk being incorporated into the new ISO 9001:2015 standard?

The consequences of delivering nonconforming products and services can range from being a minor inconvenience to being far-reaching and fatal. "Risk-based thinking" in the revised ISO/DIS 9001:2015 standard means considering risk qualitatively and/or quantitatively.

What then? We have to define the rigor and degree of formality needed to plan and control risk in our quality management system, as well as its component processes and activities. This is unique to every organization – it's relative to the context of our organization.

Ed Note: This is a free webinar sponsored by the BSI Registrars Corp, however you must log into www.asq.org in order to sign up.

A Little Something Extra

Updates to ASQ Re-cert Journal & Cost- Increase for 2017

There are changes to the recertification journal categories, including more opportunities for RU credits, and categories have been better defined to make recertifying easier. The 18 RU credit amount each three years remains the same. The new journal can be downloaded and printed directly from the main ASQ National website at: www.asq.org using “Certification” / then the / Re-certification Link” or call ASQ Customer Care at: 1-800-248-1946 and request item B0525

The re-certification costs have recently increased due to higher costs to administer the program. Recertification by journal for members is now $69 for one certification (or) $89 for two or more certifications (e.g., if you get re-certified for two, three or more areas, you still only pay $89).

Anyone starting a re-certification journal through ASQ Boulder Section is strongly urged to send an e-mail before you start to the Re-cert Chair, Gerry Naugle at: gnaugle@earthlink.net. Abstract: there are deployed and effectively implemented policies & procedures which can save you some time, effort and much USPS postage.
